History of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc.

Since its founding on December 4, 1906, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. has supplied voice and vision to the struggle of African-Americans and people of color around the world.

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity established for African-Americans, was founded at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York by seven college men who recognized the need for a strong bond of Brotherhood among African descendants in this country. The visionary founders, known as the "Jewels" of the Fraternity, are Henry Arthur Callis, Charles Henry Chapman, Eugene Kinckle Jones, George Biddle Kelley, Nathaniel Allison Murray, Robert Harold Ogle, and Vertner Woodson Tandy.

The Fraternity initially served as a study and support group for minority students who faced racial prejudice, both educationally and socially, at Cornell. The Jewel founders and early leaders of the Fraternity succeeded in laying a firm foundation for Alpha Phi Alpha's principles of scholarship, fellowship, good character, and the uplifting of humanity.

ESSAY TOPIC

Alpha Phi Alpha is the first African-American, inter-collegiate Greek-lettered fraternity. The fraternity initially served as a study and support group for minority students who faced racial prejudice, both educationally and socially, at Cornell University. The fraternity has since drastically expanded geographically, and in doing so, the organization has expanded its focus and impact. Many Black Greek-Lettered Organizations (BGLOs, i.e., fraternities and sororities) have since been established, and all of which are fully integrated. These organizations have taken up the similar task of supporting our youth in social and academic affairs, as well as staying abreast and impactful in community advancement and community relations. In keeping with the climate, culture, and events that have transpired in today's society (Minorities in STEM fields decreasing, the prevalence of police violence, the creation of the Black Lives Matter movement, etc.), elaborate on where you believe BGLOs' primary focus should lie as it pertains to our minority communities. Please write an 800 word essay communicating your opinion. This essay must be typed and included with your application packet.
